Limited due to social spacing We do not accept bookings, especially for the patio or patio, we sit according to the first available table. We'll try vice-chancellors to take any more, but you may have to wait for the booking time for the table you want. Due to the new L.A. County restrictions, we will last sitting at 21 a.m. and will close at 10 p.m. We are taking new social spacing measures and safety standards in all our restaurants while providing an amazing and comfortable dining experience. We also encourage our guests to follow best health and safety practices, including frequent hand washing, maintain social spacing and wear face veils when possible. If you're looking for a super romantic spot for dinner with someone, Castaway may be the restaurant of your choice, the scenery is spectacular. Carefully inspect the menu before eating and avoid parsnip skins at all costs. Put a special order for your vegetables to avoid what looked like weeks left over. The bread and pesto were great, as most service people arrived a few minutes early for self-parking, as walking back to the dining room was a steep climb and a long walk. Excellent service from the waiter until they rushed us to pick us up for more food before they took them out. Our booking was at 7:30pm and just 8:30 pm and the food was removed. When we arrived at 7.30pm there was no more salmon and all that was left was just the head of the salmon and the bones. I didn't even consider having another dinner at castaway restaurant and I wouldn't recommend it. I attended a wedding at this restaurant yesterday and thought the whole experience was ruined by it. Abysmal quality of facilities and services! The scenery is absolutely spectacular, but that's where everything stops! Dirty restaurant, dirty patio area with garbage stuffed in the gardener! The Verdugo banquet hall is the most sticky, it's dirty old dishes, old silverware and mismatched, awesome food! Yes, that's awesome! The salad is tasteless and poorly presented with a nasty vinaigrette dressing, all entree is cooked, steak and fish are like leather, and some guests leave after tasting! The service is below medium. Employees have no idea how to provide quality service for the price they are charging. The whole event was disorganized. There was no sign or the staff who brought the guests to the right area, the valet service confused, the wedding coordinator was the worst I've ever seen. - She's a clue! The list continues and !!!! stay away from here! It is very expensive and does not provide value for money and definitely makes you wonder why you went there! There is!
